and head. She ached all over. It began in the morning, by noon she was in bed and began taking and Anti-Pain Pills as recommended. In a day or two she was well and we are sure that if she had taken Dr. Miles' Nerve at the very first symptoms she would have prevented the attack."

Rev. E. B. Slade, Manhattan, Kan. LaGrippe usually leaves its victims in a weakened condition as the fever and pains quickly sap one's vitality. To enable the nervous system to recover from this depression no remedy is better than Dr. Miles' Nerve.

"CLARISSA."

Featuring Hazel Dawn at the Mecca Thursday Night.

I will have an especially good feature tomorrow night at the Mecca, "Clarissa," with Hazel Dawn as star. You should all come out to see it. Those who saw Hazel Dawn in "Niobe," which was shown here a few weeks ago, will be glad to see this famous player again.

Come out and spend the long evenings at the Mecca, Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Always a good feature on Mondays and Thursdays.

Parents and educators everywhere are looking for an inexpensive, yet refined and desirable, form of amusement for their young folks and for themselves. Paramount pictures meet this need. In these screen productions are found the works of the popular authors—the dramatized version of the book successes of today, played by stars of international fame, and directed by the world's foremost theatrical managers. There is nothing better obtainable than Paramount pictures. In these you will find many stars whom the public pay $2.00 per seat to see. Then, there is Geraldine Farrar, from Grand Opera, where the price is $5.00 a seat.

You can see them in the self same plays at the Mecca for 5c and 10c. Paramount pictures are the cleanest made. A review of the film successes of the past year will show that Paramount pictures predominate in the productions that have met with discriminating approval.

Yet most every day I hear some one say, "I wish I was some place where I could see some real good plays." If you are a reader of up to date books and magazines you will find that you can see none better than your local theatre is showing.

I've had a number of the best plays and am continuing to have them.

I have changed my cash contest to a diamond ring, value $20.00 and have extended the time to February 11, 1916. Everybody get busy and keep your tickets, as the ring is a splendid value and the person who gets it will not be disappointed.

OBSERVE THE WARNING.

A cold that promises to "hang on all winter" is to be dreaded. Prompt action should be taken at the first warning of a cold—sneezing, chilliness, slight shivering. Foley's Honey and Tar makes quick work of coughs, colds and croup. It clears air passages, stops coughing, eases difficult breathing. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

A recent letter from Miss Alice E. Hamby, Hanford, Wash., daughter of J. W. Hamby, who was sheriff of this county and one of the best the county ever had, contains the following interesting news: "For the first time in my life our family has been without the Chronicle. So I am sending you the requisite amount for a year's subscription. I am teaching on the Columbia River, driving four miles to school and taking four children with me. I get seventy-five dollars a month, have a well-equipped school with manual training and domestic science equipment. My father is in better health this winter than he has been for years." It will be remembered that Miss Hamby was classed among our most successful teachers when she was engaged in school work in this county, which naturally leads her many friends in this county to feel that she is surely making good in Washington.

R. A. Powell, of Grassy Cove, was in town yesterday. Mr. Powell recently returned from an extended trip through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and other states disposing of several hundred head of cattle. Mr. Powell has bought this year some 900 head of cattle and shipped them to distant markets. Owing to the sudden drop in prices he, in common with many other cattle dealers, has lost a considerable money, but he is one of those determined business men that always makes his word good regardless of loss. He saw a very heavy loss staring him in the face this fall and by putting much activity and push behind the situation he finally reduced his losses to one-fourth of what they promised to be at first.

In this issue appears the announcement of Jas. Smith as a candidate for trustee to succeed himself. The wide acquaintance he has with the people of the county would seem to render it needless for us to more than mention the fact that he has decided to again be a candidate for the office. We feel sure, however, that hundreds over the county will join with us when we say that Cumberland county never had a more capable man in that office, a man who was possessed of a larger measure of genuine honesty of purpose coupled with a desire to show to every person every courtesy consistent with a fair discharge of his duties. So well is he known and so highly is he esteemed that it would be a matter of no surprise if he had no opponent.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.

Town Watson was arrested Thursday night for being drunk and was taken before Recorder O. B. Rector. He was let off with a fine and costs aggregating $17.50 on condition that he would allow the recorder to destroy the whiskey he then had, which was about a gallon and a half. The whiskey was poured on the ground.

If you want pencils, fountain pens, pen points, ink wells, library paste, or paper fasteners come to the Chronicle office for them.

Aiden Benedict, Jr., of Pomona, was arrested Saturday night for being drunk. He was placed in the city lockup until morning and fined $20 and costs, making a total of $22.50. The fine was secured by his father and J. O. Noland. This is the second time the young man has been arrested and fined for being drunk within thirty days. The first fine was a light one and his security had it to pay.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Loshbaugh Friday. Motner and child are doing well.

Saturday K. R. Dunbar and M. C. Dunbar drove to town 69 head of fine fat hogs that fattened in the woods without any grain. Some of them would dress over 300 pounds. They were loaded and shipped to parties west of the mountain and will be hardened on corn before being slaughtered.

Never in the history of the county has there been so many fat hogs in the woods as now and many are being slaughtered this fine killing weather. Monroe Hyder recently killed two out of the woods that dressed 330 and 340 pounds respectively. They had been fed no grain at all.
